

Miss Fannie,

Here is a copy of our "1969 Lion" all yours - free. You have a wonderful, beautiful daughter and you must be the origin of such a wonderful person.

It seems as if I "really" know you through your "little girl." May God bless you, and may you continue to enjoy our yearbooks.

Cordially,

FOREWORD

OUR DREAMS BECOME REALITIES . . .

In every institution, large or small, whether home, church, or school; the members strive for essential goals.

Among these goals are shown the spiritual, moral, and physical influences. Every dream is given vision and energy only if the dreamer dwells on the obstacles of reality.

Here at Peabody, our home, we have many dreams, aspirations, and interests. Every Peabodian contributes to the stacks and stacks of headaches that come along with the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

Look around you, and you will see some of our hopes blossoming and many of our "dreams becoming realities".

THE GLORY OF BEING

A LION

School life at Peabody for the student body entails living together in a harmonious manner, giving respect to each other in order to gain respect, striving forth together to develop the school to its highest peak, and performing far beyond the call of duty.

Likewise, in keeping with the spirit of a true Lion, we have to adjust to certain conditions. Sometimes we have a need to be wild and ferocious, in a mild manner, of course, and at other times, the situation calls for our gentleness and understanding.

THE WISHING WELL OF HOPE AND PROGRESS

Throughout this year, we have observed many changes in our school as well as our community. The dreams of former Peabodians are beginning to materialize.

We take great pride in the new facilities and buildings being constructed in our city, Petersburg, one of the historical sites in the South. The political, economical, and social conditions of our fair city have definitely been improved.

Much appreciation goes to our parents who have diligently worked for the long-awaited-for accomplishments. We do not hesitate to add that their many hours of work and encouragement have aided us in many capacities. The progressive movement has begun and our feet are off the ground.

PEABODIANS IN A

We, the students of Peabody High, recognize the importance of school spirit and school pride. The student body diligently strives to carry on its tedious task of pushing the Lions on to victory. In working together with ultimate goals we not only bring honor and victory to our team, but pride and acknowledgement to our school.

Even in their darkest hour, the mighty Lions have trudged on until they have found light in the dismal jungle of competition. Win or lose the Lions' heads are always high, their smiles sincere, and their actions justified.

A true Lion is one who is loyal and one who is always ready to defend the Lion's honor in sports competition or academic excellence. A true Lion, above all else, possesses the rare quality of perseverance. No true Lion gives up easily, for the reward that lies ahead; his determination and toil bring him nearer to it.

SOLEMN MOOD

DEDICATION

To one who is never a stranger
among men,

To one whose calling card is forever a smile

To one whose life is varied and full

To one whose hand is always a helping hand

To one whose songs are the sweet songs of a lark,

We, the Class of 1969, dedicate
this yearbook

To Reverend Vernon Lee.

A native of Petersburg and a graduate of Peabody, Mr. Vernon
Lee is no stranger in the environs of the Peabody family. In spite of the many demands made on his life which involve him as a minister and a father, Reverend Lee still has the time to aid Peabody in its many activities.

The Reverend Vernon Lee, taking his role seriously.

The Sportsman--Mr. Vernon Lee, Peabody's Sportscaster, reviews the Lion's football schedule with Mr. Rainey.

The Orator--Vernon gives a thought-provoking message to his audience.

The Thinker--Here Vernon Lee, away from the hustle and bustle of life, relaxes with a book.

The Patron and the Performer--Mr. Lee, softly crooning, "Here she comes, Miss Peabody", informs Paulette Walker of her achievement.

Out of a time of violence and turmoil in which this great nation of ours had plunged--a situation of riots, racism, and dissension came a great pacifist, Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.

His philosophy of non-violence, adopted from Ghandi, influenced many people at home and abroad and brought attention to the social and economical discrimination and prejudices in the United States. This same philosophy expressed the true meaning of peace, love, and brotherhood.

Ironically as it may seem, this great man of peace was violently struck down by the fatal bullet of an assassin's gun. On this day and crucial moments afterwards, the people who sowed and harvested these evils took a good look at themselves, only to see the sick and corrupted souls of Americans and the insecure society they, themselves, had built.

ROBERT FRANCIS KENNEDY
(19 -1968)

Robert Francis Kennedy was an incredible figure with compassion, self-dignity, perseverance, and determination. This same domineering figure that recognized the many fallacies stood out beyond the masses of our system, stood out beyond the masses who ignored the policies that would alter the destination of our system.

Robert Kennedy had a keen imagination which wedged his views of reality and his dream together. He understood the problems of our society, and unlike others before; he understood but did not accept the alternatives.

Led by truth and honor, Robert Kennedy fought for the rights of all men. Although his tactics brought much opposition and criticism, nevertheless he waged a personal war against oppression, poverty, bitterness and the injustices of white supremacy.

In contrast to the noble deeds that fought against this society, he was assassinated by a member of that "sick society". A great man has died and many questions are left unanswered while his followers pave an extraordinary avenue--a new horizon of truth.

So long as the avenue is being paved, his words to live by still remain in the hearts and minds of many:

"Some men look at the world the way it is and say why, I look at the world the way it never was and say why not."

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION THE PROFESSIONAL

It is not difficult to spot the pro. The pro, the encourager of our dreams, has a definite composure. His attitudes reveal knowledge, ability, confidence, and sometimes humor.

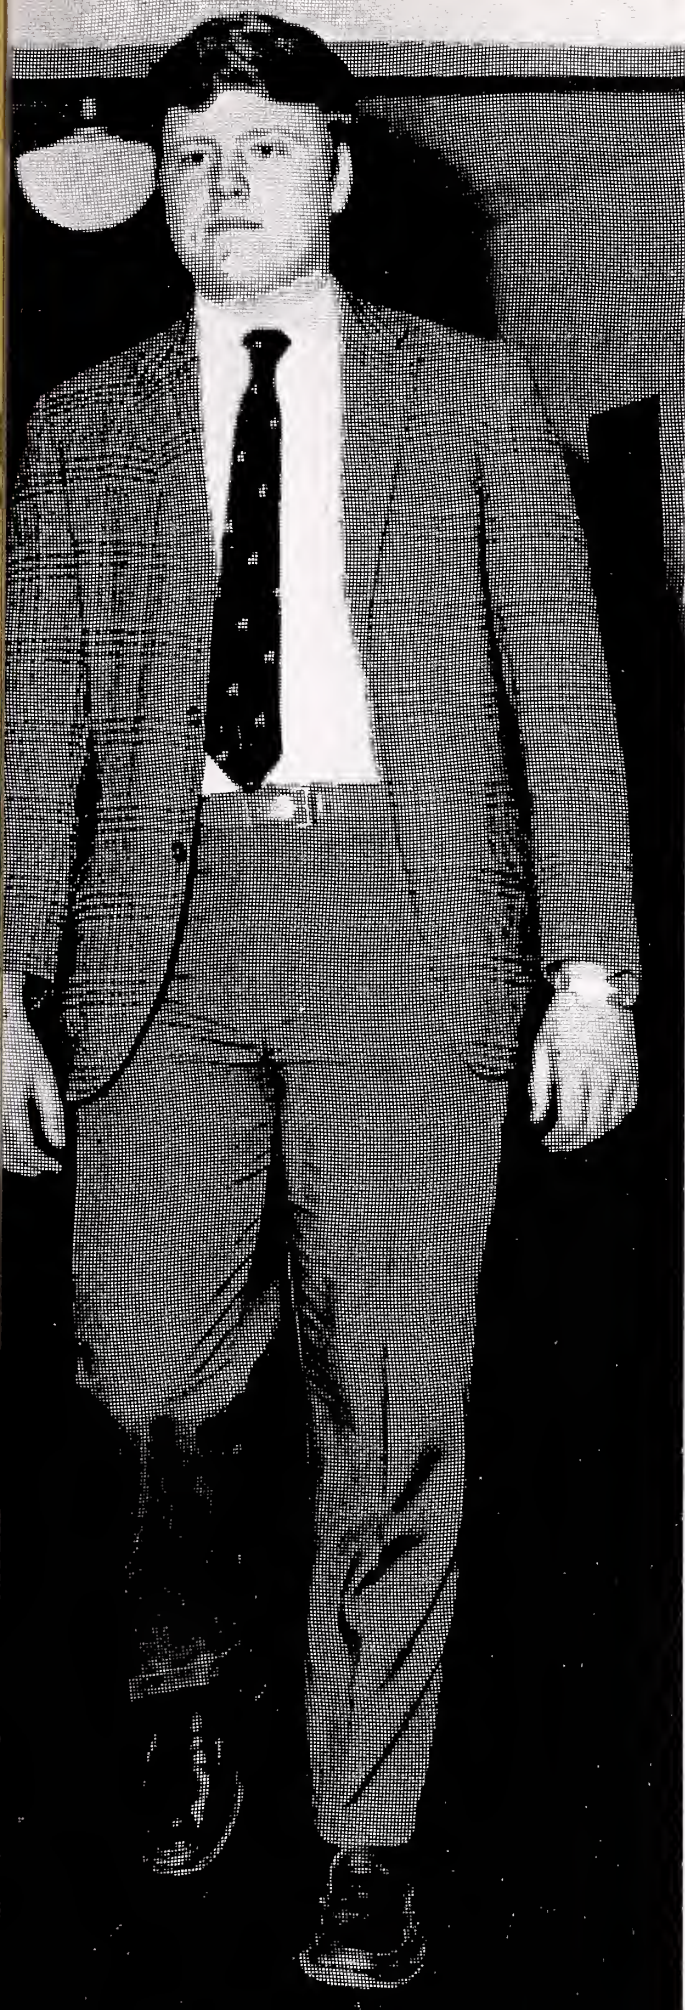

His definite composure and distinct character tell you that he is used to solving problems such as, healing broken hearts and ironing out love-sick crushes.

The moods of each of our pros are in harmony, distinction, and character. We admire his taste, because he admires and perfects our dreams. What does he do? A lot of things. He has quite a few candid tricks to stop us from staring out of the window and he often attempts to read our brain waves.

Of course, there is more. But it all adds up to this! No PRO is like OUR pro!

Mr. E. E. Rainey

“YOUNG DREAMERS”

Every great man in the history of this planet who has seen his visions transform into realities was, at one time or another, a dreamer. Here at Peabody the visions of young dreamers are being molded and channeled by our concerned teachers and dedicated Administration. Their contributions to our generation at this critical stage of our lives warrant praise in the highest degree. The ability to dream is a natural human trait; however, without adequate guidance our dreams may well develop into ideas destructive to man's purpose on earth.

The Lions of P.H.S. are proud to claim as our very own, Mr. E. E. Rainey, a man who has been instrumental in this guidance, a man who sees our generation as being the only hope America has of building our nation into the society she was meant to be. It is with this philosophy that he sacrifices, often beyond the call of duty, that our dreams may be nourished with an education of unquestionable quality.

OUR GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

With concerned eyes cast toward the individual futures of nearly 1400 students, our counselors are constantly helping us that we may reap as many benefits as possible from our present lives. Whether it's choosing the course best suited to our personal interest, or counseling us when depressing problems emerge in our private lives, they are always willing to offer the knowledge from their personal experiences as well as from their professional backgrounds. It is the strong friendships which they strive to establish with members of the student body that contribute greatly toward preserving the warm atmosphere which has long characterized life at Peabody.

Mrs. McKenzie--Head of the Department and Senior Counselor.

Mr. Goode--Sophomore Counselor

Mrs. Williamson--Freshman Counselor

Mrs. C. Turner--Junior Counselor

Mrs. Nelson--8th Grade Counselor

"Dream Guardians"

Our Home-School Co-ordinators Mrs. Micklem and Mr. Ellis.

Working under the federal program known simply as "89-10", these persons have contributed greatly toward making life here at Peabody a lot easier for students as well as teachers.

Mrs. Micklem and Mr. Ellis are instrumental in bridging the gap between home and school which, unfortunately, hinders the progress of many students.

Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. Hailes, and Mrs. Wiggins assist the faculty in clerical work giving our teachers more time to devote toward the development of young minds. Nurse Dorsey, with the aide of Mrs. Gales, stands as the guardian over our health. They well know that poor health can murder our dreams.

Add them together--you get 89-10, striving to make the Lion's den a better place for the mighty Lions of P.H.S.

Teachers Aides--Mrs. Wiggins, Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. Hailes.

If you'd look around at the organizations, they will no doubt reveal to you the interests of our competitive "teeny-boppers".

Although we have playful moments, we take great pride in the heritage of our clubs. We also take pride in the strong feeling of belonging.

All of the clubs tend to stimulate us academically, as well as to give us a sense of responsibility and obligation. To us, the definition of a well-rounded individual is one who devotes himself to pursue his varied interests, and systematically DIVERSES his talents. Yes, the clubs and organizations do enrich our high school lives.

1969 LION STAFF

Miss Yearbook

Our student government body as other governing bodies is of, for, and by the students of our Peabody community. Our President strives to promote dignity and to maintain a harmonious atmosphere throughout our school term.

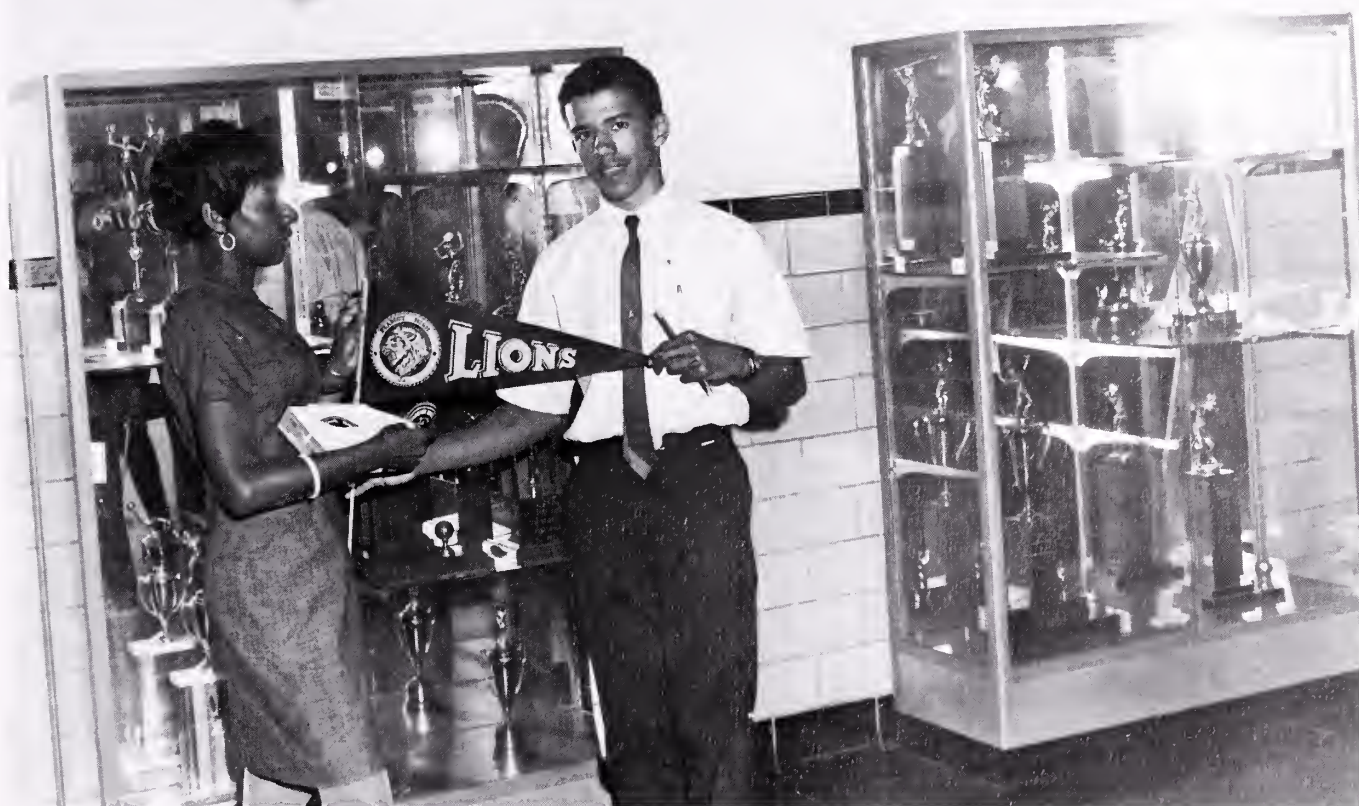

The main purpose of the council is to serve as the backbone of school activities and to cater to the students' concerns, and interests. To do this the council continues to take on certain traditional activities annually such as Follies, Christmas baskets, Teacher Appreciation Day, Student-Teacher Day, etc.

(A quote from the President) "To every step taken in achieving our decree, we must take two steps in fostering a responsible character."

Mrs. Elva Hollins and Mrs. Rose Barnes are sponsors.

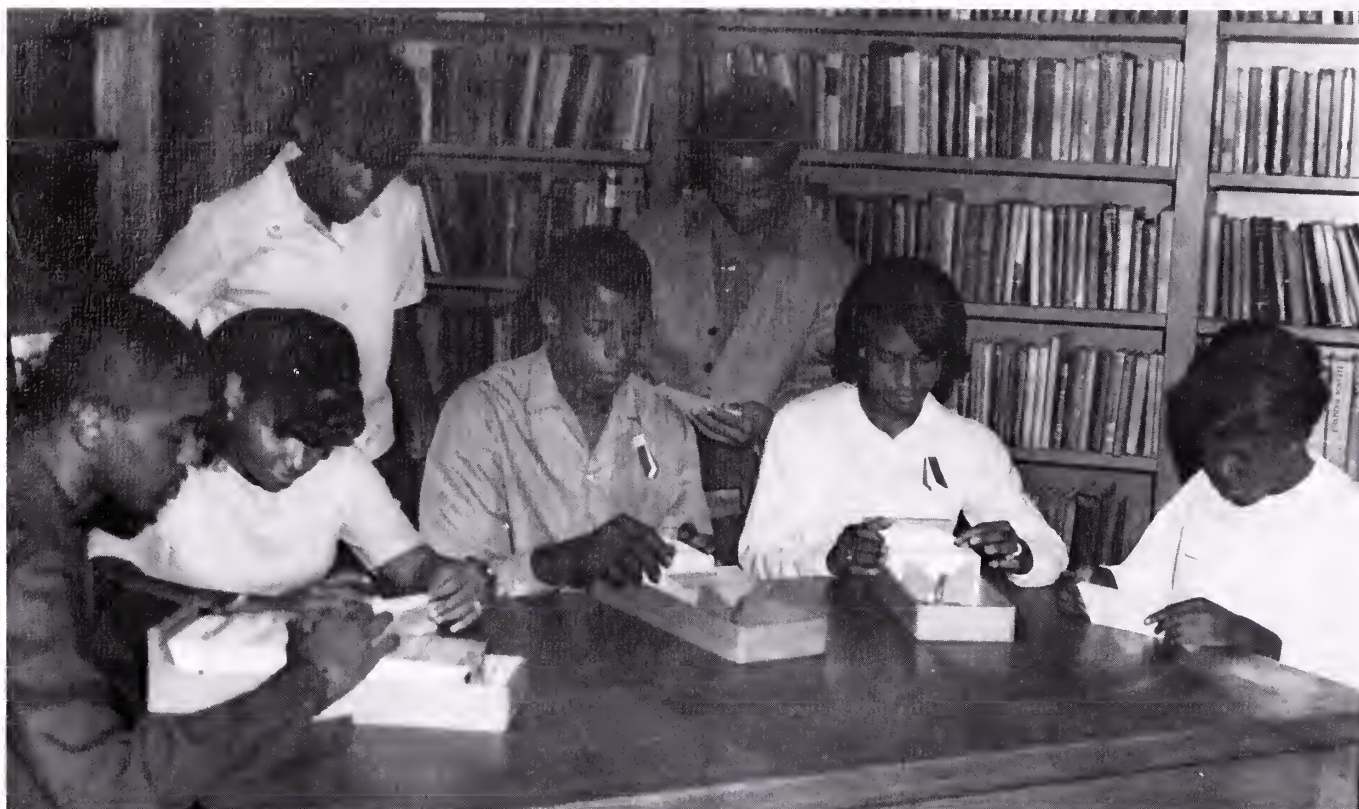

Kermit Dance, President of the Student Cooperative Association, is a conscientious and loyal Peabodian. His unselfish interest in the student body has earned him the title of a true and noble servant for the advancement of school patriotism.

Carolyn and Kermit, Vice-President and President of the S.C.A. display a Lion pennant. The sale of these pennants aid the organization in promoting school enthusiasm.

Members of the Library Staff work each period during study and before or after school. These ambitious students volunteer their time and labor to keep our library operating smoothly.

In spite of the small number of students participating in the Literary Guild there is much accomplished. The members share many rewarding reading experiences.

The Journalism Club, composed of the Yearbook Staff, the Publication Club and other interested members, combines interest and skill to produce creative writing and reporting.

The Student Publications Club produces a semi-annual newspaper entitled "The Peabody Script." They have top-notch writers with vivid imaginations, along with praiseworthy proofreaders.

Newly chosen candidates, whose countenances depict a variety of expressions and moods, wait for the long sought-for oath that will make them a full-fledged member of the Peabody National Honor Society.

The Clyde S. Scott Chapter of the National Honor Society encourages development and maintenance of scholastic ability. The Senior Class members pictured here represent some of the most prominent intellectual images at Peabody. Their character and leadership ability qualify them to be worthy of this image.

The New Homemakers of America club opens its doors to all individuals interested in domestic affairs.

The Future Business Leaders of America prepare to be tomorrow's leaders in the fast moving world of business.

Mr. Mallory, art instructor, and the Art Club members are evaluating and discussing anatomical drawings done by Mr. Mallory.

The Photography Club headed by Mr. W. Shepperson takes and develops pictures for the Yearbook Staff and the "Peabody Script." The students are trained in every field of photography.

The Industrial Arts Club seeks to help learners know their environment and to make the most of it.

The Foreign Language Club, striving to rid its members of geographical prejudices due to lack of knowledge, explores and discusses the various customs, costumes, geographical location and language of many countries.

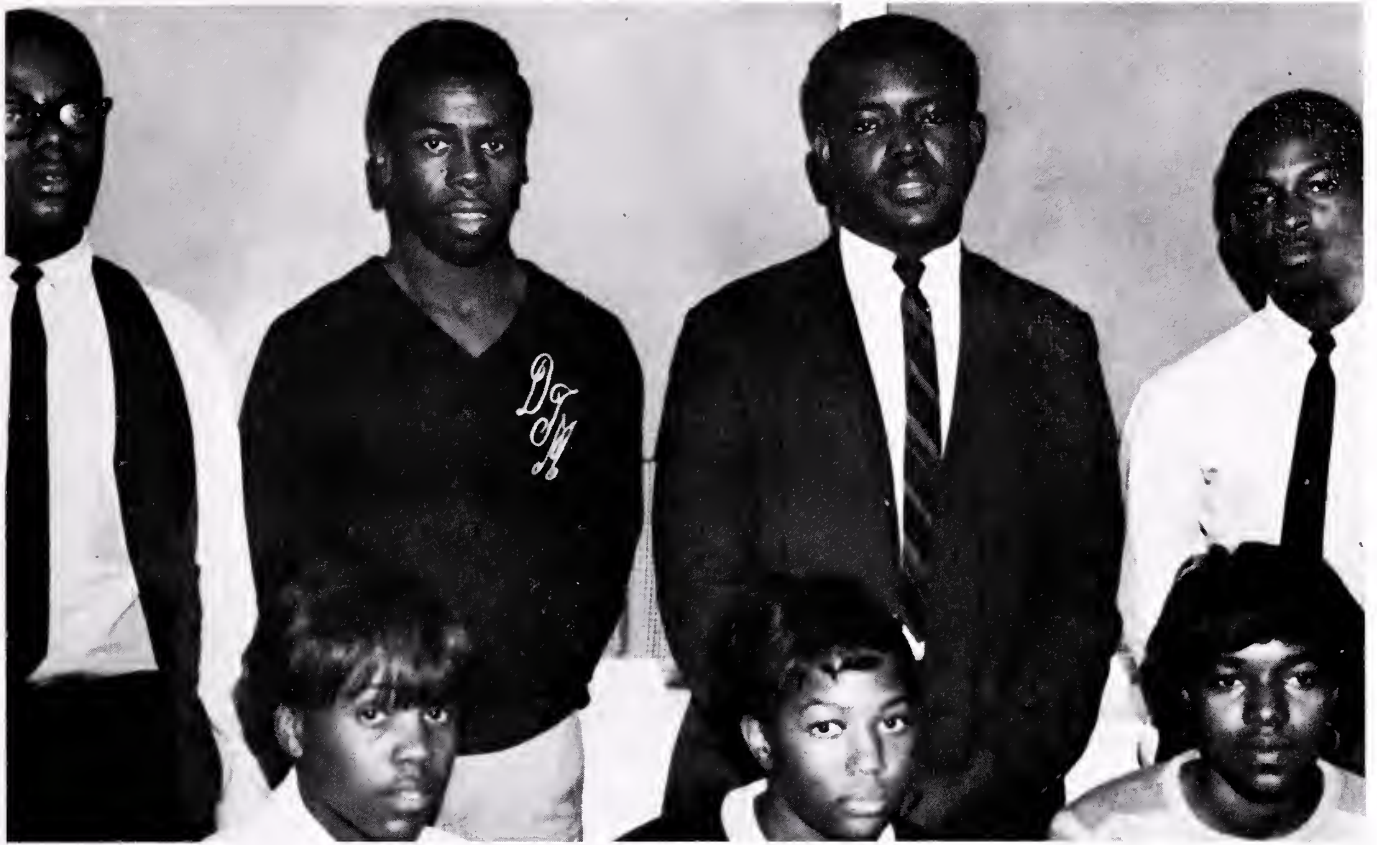

These sturdy, young Peabodians have gained membership in the Varsity Club as a result of participating in one or more of Peabody's sports.

Matthew Brown, Larry Lanier, and Lonnel Edmonds, members of the Varsity Club, display two of the many trophies they have received. One of the newer trophies the boys are proud of is the one given to them as "Uncrowned Champions 1968-1969."

Howard Cooley, President of the Peabody Debating and Public Speaking Club and district winner of the Optimist Speech Contest, expounds a point to his fellow colleagues.

Mr. McKinley, director, discusses the band's agenda for the year with David Ware and Robert Moore, officers of the band.

Under the direction of Mr. William McKinley, the Peabody band entertained many spectators during half-times at home and at away games. The band marched in the Veterans Day Parade and in the Christmas parade.

Peabodians are proud of their very beautiful high-stepping majorettes and lovely twirlers. The girls participating with the squad are very versatile and skillful.

In a world of her own, high above the cheering crowd, Yolonda Hampton, head Majorette, does her own thing.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Richard Pegram, V.I.C.A. fosters high standards in trade ethics, workmanship, leadership, and esteem for trade and industrial education.

Members of the Junior Athletics Club promote and perpetuate enthusiasm for sports among students non-inclined toward intramural sports.

MODERN DANCE GROUP

These seniors play a large part in the group with their valuable experience.

The members of the Modern Dance Group demonstrate that they are not camera shy by striking up a variety of poses for our photographer.

The Peabody High School Choir, under the directorship of Miss Esther Franklin, is responsible for many pleasant and memorable moments of music at dear "Ole Peabody".

Members of the Industrial Cooperative Training Club undertake projects that will enable them to handle the jobs of the future.

The James Shield Science Club "Today's Explorers, Tomorrow's Scientists"

The enthusiastic members of the Polygon Club engage in the solving of and discussing of mathematical problems.

Although the membership of the Projection Crew is on voluntary basis, one must complete a training course in the use of the projector before entering this organization.

“WE, AS UNDERCLASSMEN, JOYOUSLY CATER TO
THE UPPERCLASSMEN’S DREAMS” ...

The heavenly scent of a midnight summer's dream fills our nostrils as we smell the aroma of a dream in the making. All examples of good leadership, academic standings, vocational interests, and good Peabody spirit are displayed by us.

All that the upperclassmen were not, we diligently strive to be. The clouds of success linger in the sky of a blue hue, while the tears of their failures build steps for us to climb. Their dreams are added to ours, their prayers are repeated on our lips, and their wishes for us to remain true Peabodians are our every command.

AT THE MENTION OF SPORTS, OUR ENTIRE STUDENT BODY GOES BERSERK!!!

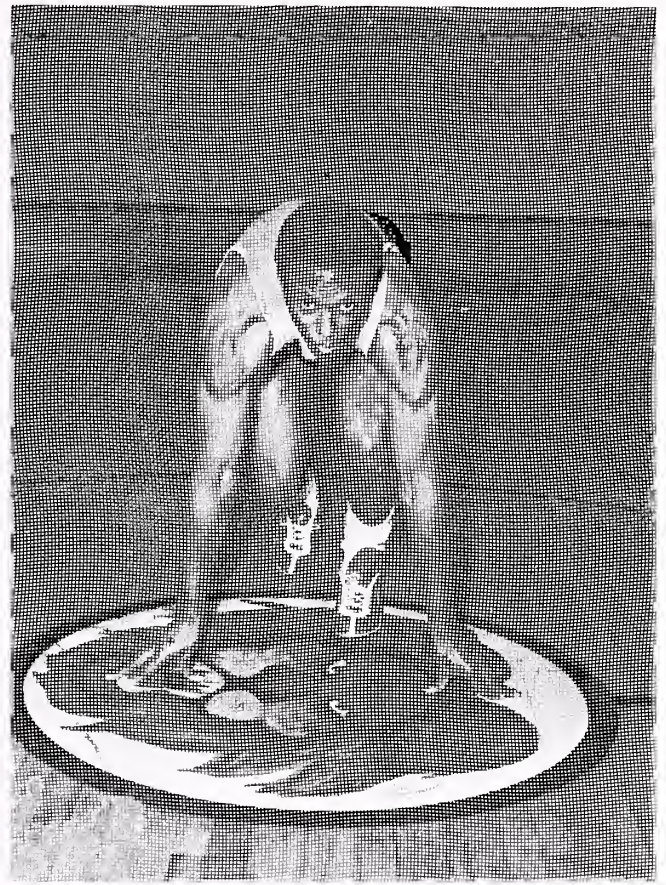

Peabody without sports is pretty much like a church without a congregation, a beggar without a cup, a circus without a clown, a piano without keys, or a boy without his mom. Drastic, isn't it?

Sports are the main interests of the students on the extracurricular activities' agenda. Sports provide entertainment for our student body and faculty. They also help to promote school spirit and develop a sense of "fair play" and good sportsmanship.

For Peabodians, our lifeblood is the competition and the school spirit. Isn't that what an institution is all about?

FOOTBALL—1968-69

LIONS' VETERANS

Matthew Brown

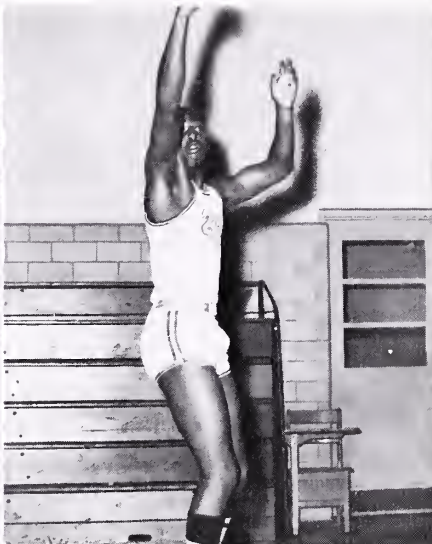

Carroll Shaw

Herbert Lewis

Howard Crocker

Lonnie Edmonds

Coach Carl Peal

Kenneth Horton

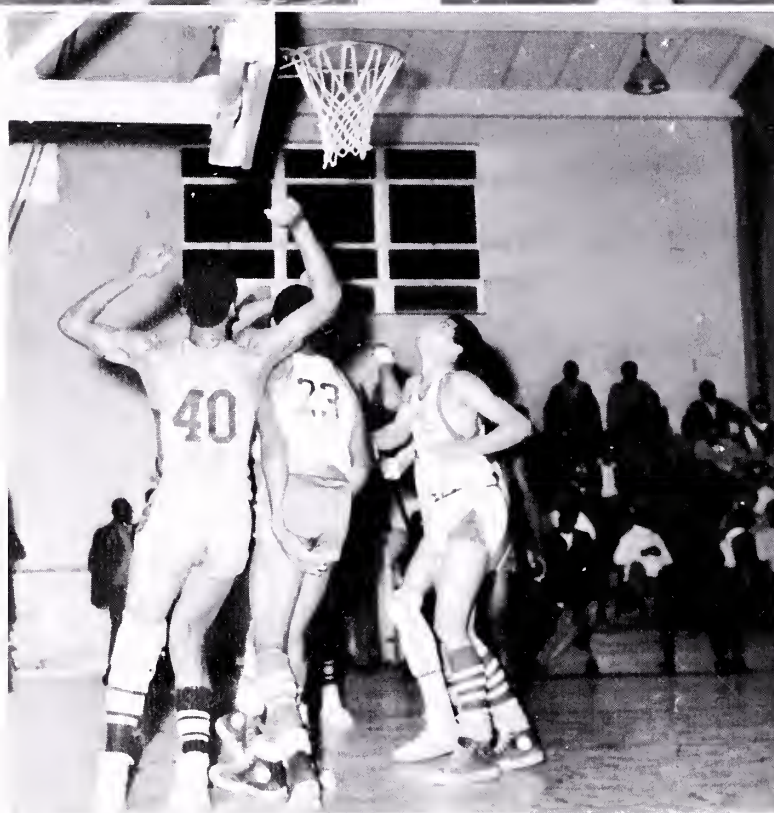

Ronnie Peterson

Determination marked the spirit of Peabody High Basketball Team this year. Senior Lonnie Edmonds scored more points per game than any other player in the Central district. Also on the spotlight are Carroll Shaw and Howard Crocker, who control the board. Ronnie Peterson and Matthew Brown are two very good sharpshooters and ballhandlers. The Lions also have two relief stars, Herbert Lewis and Kenneth Horton. Working diligently each year is Coach Peal, who has never had a losing year at Peabody.

Brown shoots two to break the ice.

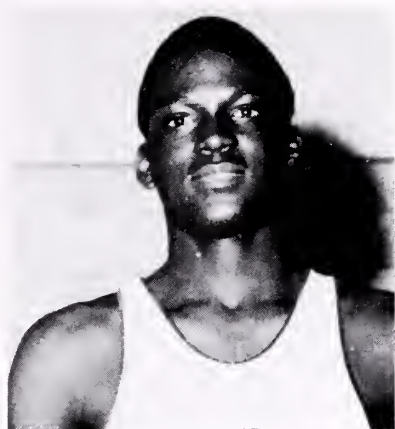

Shaw hitting one jumper from the corner.

Herbert Lewis goes in on the left side for a layup and two points. Lewis's hustle and sharp-shooting contributed much to the squad's performance this year.

FEATURES... THE STORY OF OUR MOMENTS OF ENCHANTMENTS

It is not hard to imagine that in a school with a variety of student ideals and moods that there would be plenty of activities and diverse talents displayed.

The Peabody family is characterized for its exhibition of talents and noted accomplishments. These areas are the criteria of our features.

The features, indeed tell a story of the highlights of every season, and the sunshine that follows every rainy day. The adventures, the catastrophes, the honors, and the escapades of our life on campus are now revealed.

MISS PEABODY CONTESTANTS

Yeta Dawson, Cassandra Richardson, Olivia Jefferson, Linda Davis, Amanda Hicks, Joan Woodfin, Joyce Robinson and Paul-ette Walker.

Miss Gloria Brant is a lovely young lady competing for the title, "Miss Peabody High".

The stage was set . . . the mood was elegant. When the cloud of suspense lifted on the stage, it was visible to those in the audience that Miss Paulette Walker had been chosen as Miss Peabody High 1968-69.

MISS PEABODY—1968-69

Miss Brenda Nickleberry walks her last few steps as Miss Peabody High of 1967-68.

Miss Paulette Walker with tears of elation streaming down her face is crowned Miss Peabody 1968-69.

The graceful "Miss Peabody" and our principal, Mr. Rainey, rejoicing with "Her Majesty's" Court.

MISS CAMPUS SWEETHEART

The vivacious, friendly, radiant, ever-smiling Miss Yeta Dawson . . . small wonder we chose her as Our Miss Campus Sweetheart. She is active in all phases of campus life. There seems to be no end to her energy.

THANKSGIVING AT PEABODY

Thanksgiving is a day in which all of us are proud. At Peabody we show our thankfulness. Preparing baskets for the needy is a tradition among us Peabodians. We also express the meaning of Thanksgiving by giving a play. This year's play was entitled "Willie Carves the Turkey".

SENIORS PRESENT CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class, under the direction of Miss Ann Phillips, presents its annual Senior play. The drama was entitled "The Groom Said No!"

Charla Sizemore, David Ware, Kenneth Lee, Yeta Dawson and Gertrude Harris.

Kenneth Lee, the groom, convincing the audience that he can't say "yes".

Charla Sizemore, Paulette Walker, Kenneth Lee and the Nurse.

CHRISTMAS HIGHLIGHTS AT PEABODY

There are numerous ways in which students celebrate Christmas--scenes from the Christmas play and displays in the hall are only a few of the spiritual presentations.

"THE FULLFILLMENT OF ONE DREAM . . . THE RESULT OF THE PRODIGY OF THE HUMAN MIND."

The seniors, "the cream of the crop" possess the most distinguished portrait in our art gallery.

There have been trying times for them, of course, but they trudged on, determined and consciously aware of the feat they have nearly conquered.

The senior year burns holes in their pockets with senior portraits, college applications, aptitude tests, class dues, and many more expensive trivialities. The going is seemingly rough and many boast after they have been promoted for the first semester, declaring that it was such a "breeze", man.

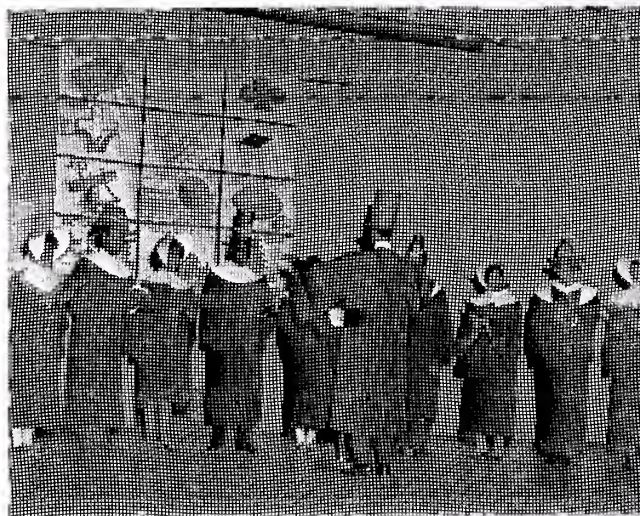

Many hearts shudder and leap out of bosoms from the tensions of exams, (they know that they must pass.) Many are also cognizant of their beginning adjustment to an adult world.

The seniors are now more conscientious about their attitudes and character. There is still fun, but it is more sophisticated and adult-like.

Their teachers' smiles beam upon them as they see them merrily growing up, remembering the thumb tacks-in-the-chair episodes and the strenuous horseplay.

With heavy hearts, the seniors prepare to depart into an insecure world--away from their teacher's guidance and mommy's encouraging words.

The seniors have many persons to be grateful to, and many obligations to fulfill. They leave behind tokens of love and many thumb tacks!

SENIOR SPONSORS

The Senior Class is in the process of electing officers who will serve as the core of the class of 1969.

We dreamed impossible dreams, attacked and conquered unbearable sorrow, that those who would travel the road we have trod may better discover the unprecedented pride and unparalleled joy experienced by the Class of '69 during its life at Peabody. This was our initial and continuing quest. And now we must pass through these doors, sufficiently prepared to face the greater quest and more daring challenges of a world never before known to us.

We must constantly search for peace in a world often inflicted with turmoil we must love though there be temptations to hate, we must believe though that in which we believe may never be seen.

And We know if we would only be true to these glorious quests, That our hearts will be peaceful and calm when we're laid to our rest.

And the World will be better for this That one man scorned and covered with scars.

May strive with his very last ounce of courage,

To reach that unreachable star.

ADS AND PATRONS PROVE AN INTEREST IN A DREAM...

Many of us have dreams of entering the ever growing and complicated world of business. It is always good to know that there are those of us who are interested in an investment in our dreams.

The mere fact that our local merchants and patrons have aided us financially is evidence enough that these people realize the problems of one of our dreams--the yearbook. These persons have willingly assisted us in producing this yearbook.

We, the 1969 Lion Staff would like very much to thank the patrons and the members of the Retail Merchants Association for believing in us and helping us to "secure our dream."

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

Although now you are graduates, you can do a great service for the rest of us, if you never cease to be students--looking for opportunities and ways to cherish the American system of free enterprise and to improve the American way of life. You can be thankful for these schools in a country where you are free to worship and work and think and talk as you please. This is your heritage from the people who built America.

THE FUTURE is pretty largely in your hands--you must be vigilant and active to combat the evils of socialism, government domination of private industry, and all the "ism" than destroy democracy. We depend upon you to do a good job.
